ASSAULTED BY TWO NEGROES.

A dispatch from Beltsville, Md., dated March 29 says:

"Moses Henson and Alfred Ford, colored, 15 and 14 years old, respectively, are in the lock-up in Hyattsville charged with attempting to assault Genevieve Clower, the 13-year-old and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh G. Clower, who reside about three-quarters of a mile east of Sunny Side, Prince George's county.

The alleged attempt was made in the bend of the Edmunds road, about 300 yards north of the home of A. L. A. Grimes, and the cries of the little girl aroused Albert Moore, who was working in a field near by. The little girl came into Mr. Grimes' home so frightened that it was some time before she could tell what had occurred.

Deputy Sheriff Mohler of Hyattsville was notified of the assault by telephone and a short time afterwards arrested two young negroes, riding bicycles, headed for Washington. They were taken back to Beltsville where they were identified by several people who had seen them pass both before and after the alleged assault.

The negroes were then driven to the home of Mr. Clower and the instant the little girl looked at them she identified them. She stated that she was coming home from school when the negroes, on wheels, passed her on the Old Mill Road. When she arrived at the bend in the Edmunds road, out of sight of all the houses, one of the boys approached and wanted to know why she had called him a nigger. She started to run and the negro followed, throwing his coat over her head. She screamed as loud as she could and ran into Mrs. Grimes' house.

Justice Dahler committed the negroes to jail to await the action of the grand jury, which convenes April 4th in Marlboro. They both live in Washington.

Little Miss Clower is a grand daughter of Mrs. Mary Clower, and a niece of Joseph B. Clower, manager of Schmitt's Drug Store.

Gov. Mann Pardons Kirby J. Bowman.

Mr. Kirby J. Bowman received a pardon from Governor Mann Thursday morning and left Woodstock on the noon train for his home at Bowman's. He was convicted for assaulting Robt. J. Lantz in Woodstock, February court day 1909 and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and serve one year in jail. He has served six months of his sentence.

A petition signed by over 1700 citizens was presented to the Governor, or.

Evening's Entertainment at Massanutten!

On Friday night, April the eighth, The Athletic Association of Massanutten Academy will give an evening's entertainment for the benefit of the Base Ball Team in the Academy auditorium beginning at a half after seven o'clock.

The program will consist of a short minstrel, by the boys of the school assisted by one or two able boys from the town, and several other interesting features. The whole will be followed by a dance in which all are invited to join. Hot coffee, sandwiches, ice cream and cake will be served throughout the evening on the Academy lawn if the weather is fair. General admission only ten cents.

Progressive Forty-Two.

Luteana Hall was the scene of much merriment last Saturday afternoon when Miss Arlene Walker delightfully entertained her young lady friends at progressive forty-two.

Miss Wheat won the first prize and Miss Debora Coe, of New York the consolation prize. A delightful luncheon was served. The color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in refreshments and tally cards.

Those present were Misses Meta Goodson, of Tennessee, Deborah Coe, of New York, Lula Magruder, Susie Jeffries, Mable Walton, Agnes West, Jen D. Wheat, Alice Bowman, Jean and Rebecca Paxton, Cary and Maudie Funkhouser, Elizabeth Newton, Nancy Pierce, Alice Coffman, Rae Albert, Bessie Wunder, Margaret Hoffman, Emma Carter, Eleanor Grabbill, Margaret Bowman and Mrs. Russell Boyer.

DEATHS.

Oscar Barr.

Mr. Oscar Barr, at one time a prominent business man and mayor of the city of Winchester died at his home, in that place, last Monday evening. He was a Confederate Veteran, having served in the 5th Va. Infy. Stonewall Brigade.

His death was not unexpected, having suffered three distinct strokes of paralysis.

He is survived by his widow, two sons and three daughters. He was an uncle of Capt. W. M. Calvert of this place.

Funeral services were held at Grace church on Thursday afternoon and were in charge of Rev. Geo. S. Bowers, Pastor of Grace Lutheran church of which Mr. Barr had been a member for many years. His body was interred in Mt. Hebron cemetery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Lauck, aged 89 years, died last Saturday at her home in Harrisonburg. She was the mother of Mrs. S. V. Lauck who has been spending some time in Woodstock this spring.

Mrs. Sarah H. Miller, 90 years old, widow of William Shanks Miller died in Harrisonburg last Saturday.
